SUZIE MEETS LINDA—Linda Bermudez, queen of the 1956 Riverside Community Fair, meets with Suzie, the baby elephant, by the pool of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles before the "Miss Pan American Ball" honoring 23 ladies who reigned as queens of community fairs during 1956. The queens were honored with a day-long series of events culminating in a dinner and ba[ll] attended by over 300 people. The fete was sponsored by the Pan Am[erican] Amusement Corporation which sponsors the community fairs in cooperatio[n] civic and service organizations throughout the West Coast area.
